The List

Kansas City's Private Companies Ranked by Revenue, 2020

Locally Researched by: Andrew Vaupel, Kansas City Business Journal

Staff Kansas City Business Journal

Editor's Note: Every year, companies that previously participated in the Kansas City Business Journal's Lists choose not to do so for a variety of reasons. In 2020, the pandemic introduced an enormous challenge for businesses, amplifying the number of companies that opted out or did not respond to our requests for the Private Companies List.

Three other notable companies also departed the List this year: Custom Truck One Source (No. 11 in the previous List) became a public company; CommunityAmerica Credit Union (No. 42) was removed because it's a nonprofit; and Title Boxing Club (No. 83) was acquired.

On page 12 of the print or digital editions of our newspaper, you'll find a listing of 17 other companies that ranked on the previous version of this List but are not included this year.

Information on The List was obtained through Kansas City Business Journal research or supplied by individual companies through questionnaires that KCBJ could not independently verify. In case of ties, companies are listed alphabetically.
